

THE W. REYMONT FOUNDATION

The W. Reymont Foundation, chartered in 1970 as a charitable organization, is active in the culture field. It is named after Wladyslaw Reymont, a popular and distinguished Polish writer who in 1924 received the Nobel Prize for literature for his novel, "The Peasants".

The W. Reymont Foundation is a charitable organization, whose purpose is to support and propagate Polish culture in Canada. The Foundation grants scholarships to students of Polish origin, organizes literary contests, gives financial help to organizations, schools and various Polonia groups and sponsors many functions whose aim is to preserve and spread Polish culture and tradition in Canada.

The continued success of The W. Reymont Foundation is dependent on private and organizational donations and its own membership.

In 2020 The W. Reymont Foundation is celebrating its 50th year. Each Scholarship awarded will be of the amount of $1000.00.

The Scholarship ceremony will be held on September 18th, 2020 at the The Polish Combatants Hall SPK at 206 Beverley St, Toronto, ON M5T 1Z3.
